As part of our commitment to advancing our innovation and artificial intelligence (AI) programs, we are thrilled to launch the Radiology Partners' Clinical Innovation Team.

RP's level of excitement and engagement for AI coupled with our new strategic alliance with Aidoc positioned us to select a team dedicated specifically to clinical innovation. We believe this team will enable us to accelerate our ability to transform radiology through new innovation and technology offerings. Please join us in congratulating our new Clinical Innovation Directors and their teammates.
