RP Night Out is back!

Dr. Arthy Saravanan

As Associate Chief Medical Officer for Recruitment at Radiology Partners (RP), I’m pleased to partner with our Recruiting team to connect with radiologists, radiology residents and fellows interested in learning about RP and our mission to transform radiology.

We are so excited to offer two in-person events in June! RP Night Out is back, and we are headed to Memphis and Nashville. At RP Night Out, we offer space for our guests to connect with our radiology leaders, network with others and hear more about the growth and leadership development opportunities at RP practices. Attendees are welcome to bring an additional guest, and food and drinks will be served. See the details below.
