

107TH SCIENTIFIC ASSEMBLY AND ANNUAL MEETING ◊ NOVEMBER 28 TO DECEMBER 2, 2021 ◊ McCORMICK PLACE, CHICAGO

WELCOME TO  RSNA® 2021
REDEFINING RADIOLOGY

Back in action at 2021 RSNA

Our Radiology Partners (RP) teammates were thankful to be back in person at the 2021 Radiological Society of North America (RSNA) Annual Meeting in Chicago November 28-December 2. Take a look at some of our photos from the event!

At RSNA, 14 RP physicians participated in presentation sessions, and our booth included live demonstrations of our artificial intelligence (AI) suite, including Aidoc, recoMD and our new AI orchestration engine, RPX, which powers the largest instance of radiology AI in clinical deployment in the United States.

Dr. Krishna Nallamshetty, ACMO for Clinical Value, participated as an event attendee and presenter. "It was great to be back at RSNA 2021 in person," he said. "The innovation in radiology over the past two years was so exciting, and I can't wait to implement some of these programs to help us transform radiology."

Dr. Rich Heller, Associate Chief Medical Officer (ACMO) for Communications and Health Policy, was there as an attendee and presenter. Additionally, he was named an at-large director on the RSNA Board of Directors. “The best part of RSNA was bumping into old friends I hadn’t seen in years and catching up,” he said. “Also, I appreciate that the RSNA and others made the health of attendees a priority. I even had to do a nasal swab while wearing a tuxedo.”
