At our annual Practice Leadership Summit (PLS), we take time to celebrate Radiology Partners (RP) teammates who live our values in action.

Year after year, this tradition gives us the opportunity to recognize those who demonstrate integrity, teamwork, excellence, service and accountability in how they show up for others. Their example inspires all of us to grow, both as colleagues and as individuals. By honoring these teammates, we keep our values front and center as we continue advancing our mission to transform radiology.

The three 2026 Value Award winners were nominated by their peers and selected through a rigorous process, and we are thankful they are on our team. Congratulations!

Service: We exist to provide the best in radiology services. We strive to understand the needs of our clients - especially patients and referring physicians - and exceed their expectations.

Kati Brady: Service Award

Kati Brady serves as Vice President, Managing General Counsel at RP.

Colleagues describe Kati as someone who consistently delivers service through her steady presence, focus and intentional support of others. She is known for navigating complex, high-stakes situations with clarity and care, ensuring people feel heard, supported and confident in the path forward. Kati brings insight beyond her role, offers thoughtful solutions when challenges feel stuck, and does so with warmth and humility. By showing up with consistency and authenticity, she exemplifies service not just through what she does but how she makes others feel, and in doing so, elevates those around her.

Teamwork: The core of our Practice. We work together. The best of us alone cannot exceed the impact of all of us together. We support, respect and value each other.

Dr. Steve Craig: Teamwork Award

Dr. Steve Craig is the Associate Chief Medical Officer (ACMO) of Operations and Integrations and Practice President of the RP SEAL Team.

Dr. Craig was recognized for his exceptional teamwork during times of significant change. Known as a master of diagnostic radiology with deep interventional expertise, he leads with calm confidence and an unwavering focus on patient care. Colleagues describe him as someone who can always be counted on: ready to step in, travel where needed and help solve challenges that may seem impossible. Whether guiding high-stakes go-lives or supporting teams behind the scenes, Dr. Craig creates trust, steady leadership and a shared belief in success, exemplifying what teamwork looks like at RP.

Accountability: Driven by our desire for continuous improvement. We take responsibility for our actions and acknowledge that each of us has a role in the success of the practice.

Dr. Vik Krishnasetty: Accountability Award

Dr. Vik Krishnasetty serves as Associate Chief Medical Officer for Clinical Technology and Data.

Colleagues describe Dr. Vik Krishnasetty as a leader who consistently advances radiology through thoughtful innovation, operational rigor, and unwavering commitment to improvement. Throughout his career, he has worked to strengthen clinical workflows, leading teams to make bold changes that remove barriers and better define the value of radiologists' work. He is known as a true partner across functions, contributing wherever the need is greatest—whether solving complex operational challenges, developing smarter systems or helping teams adopt new capabilities.

Chairman's Impact Award

Zhihong Chen: Chairman's Impact Award

RP announced a new award this year, the Chairman's Impact Award. The award recognizes individuals whose contributions have had an exceptional impact on the practice, often behind the scenes, and whose efforts meaningfully advance the mission and future of RP.

Zhihong Chen, Cognita Co-founder and Chief Technology Officer, was honored for his transformative work using technology to advance the future of RP, radiology and, more broadly, healthcare. Cognita—now part of Mosaic Clinical Technologies, RP's technology and AI services division—plays a key role in bringing advanced AI capabilities into RP's clinical workflows, helping scale innovation across the practice.

Zhihong combines deep expertise in AI with a relentless work ethic and a clear, mission-driven focus on improving patient care. Colleagues highlighted his ability to turn complex clinical challenges into practical solutions, inspire those around him, and elevate the work of the entire team—all while leading with humility and a genuine passion for making a difference.
